

Styles of Leadership

[Delegating Style \[PDF\]](#)--can be used when things are calm, employees know their jobs well and direct supervision isn't required.

[Supporting Style \[PDF\]](#)--can be used when things are calm, staff may be new or experienced in their jobs. Builds trust, communication, is transparent and creates an environment to promote a state of contentment, pride in workplace.

[Coaching Style \[PDF\]](#)--Helps employee develop skills and achieve goals.

[Directing Style \[PDF\]](#)--Use when external environment is turbulent and when employees are new and don't know their jobs well.

[Types of Leaders \[PDF\] Infographic](#) Designer: Stacy Olson

[When to use what type of leadership style \[PDF\] Infographic](#)
Designer and content: Ahmed Taha

[Leadership Styles \[PDF\] Infographic](#) Designer: Haris Babacic
Content: Daniel Goleman's Six Styles of Leadership

[Grid of leadership styles compared to variables in environment and staff \[PDF\]](#)
Designer and content: bms.co.in

Updated 4/9/2019