

ALUMNI BOARD APPLICATION

The College of Arts & Letters (CAL) Alumni Association Board of Directors represents the interests of over 40,000 former students. Founded in 1982, the board consists of dedicated alumni and friends who volunteer their time, expertise and resources in support of the College and its goals. The alumni board welcomes all applications, and in selecting nominees, attempts to address the various academic, artistic, professional, generational, and cultural backgrounds of the MSU family. Your responses to the following questions will assist us in assembling a board that best serves the college's alumni. Please type or print clearly.
