INTERDISCIPLINARY PROGRAMS

WOMEN’S & GENDER STUDIES

cal.msu.edu
This interdisciplinary major is designed to provide up-to-date knowledge about women and gender in comparative, transnational, historical, and global perspectives. Students in this major also select a concentration within the major in one of the following areas: Gender, Race, Ethnicity, and History; Sexuality and Conflict/Violence; Gender and the Arts and Humanities; or Gender Applied: Health, Urban, and Public Policy. Graduates find career options in both the private and public sector.